

Early Leadership Programme 2nd & 3rd October 2014 (2 days)

The Institute of Education, University of London
Linda Trapnell & Graham Dring

Who can apply?

This programme is designed for:

New leaders of small teams, heads of small departments, subject leaders, phase leaders, heads of year, cross curricular leaders or those thinking of applying for one of these posts. This includes non-faculty leaders who work in business support aspects of a school.

The programme will help you to:

- Model leadership behaviour
- Develop skills in all forms of communication
- Consider aspects of learning through professional dialogue

What do participants say about the programme?

"Thank you so much for this experience! I learnt about different styles of leadership and the differences between leadership and management. It also gave me a deeper understanding of the different thinking styles and how these complement each other e.g. in a team environment. I now need to think about how I use this in my role." Participant October 2012
