

Widening Leadership Programme

29th, 30th September & 1st October 2014 (3 days)

The Institute of Education, University of London

Linda Trapnell & Graham Dring

Who can apply?

This programme is designed for:

Any school leader wanting to move into senior leadership, including non-teaching staff; who have been in a middle leader role and has already taken part in leadership development or are new to senior management.

The programme will help you to:

- Lead yourself, your team and beyond
- Clarify your communication style and strengths
- Understand the use of motivation as a leadership tool
- Advance your skills in leading and influencing others
- Intensify your impact on learning and teaching practices
- Deal with contentious issues and whole school initiatives

What do participants say about the programme?

"I have learnt that: delegation is not shirking work, it is essential to give people opportunities to grow and develop; the need to share a clear vision and to refer to this when tackling challenging situations; how to set out a framework for leading and managing change." Participant October 2012

Fees for 2014
