

National Professional Qualification for Middle Leadership (NPQML) for FOBISIA Schools

Thames Valley
Schools Partnership

Working with schools to develop high quality leadership for successful learning

The Thames Valley Schools Partnership is pleased to be working with Hornbill School, Brunei and Service Children's Education to deliver the National Professional Qualification for Middle Leadership (NPQML) in Asia. We are hoping that this programme will commence in the autumn term 2014 and welcome FOBISIA schools to register participants on the cohort.

Who is it for?

New middle leaders establishing themselves in their role; established and experienced middle leaders keen to develop further; middle leaders facing, or looking for, new challenges.

Where will it be based?

We are hoping that all face-to-face days will be hosted in Brunei; however, this is subject to recruitment to a viable cohort size.

How does the programme work?

The programme is part of the National College Leadership Curriculum and consists of 2 Essential and 1 Elective Module.

NPQML Leading a team within an organisation	Education Excellence	Operational Management	Strategic Leadership
2 Essential and 1 Elective module	Leading Teaching Leading Inclusion: Achievement for All	Managing systems and processes Leading an effective team Leading and developing staff	Succeeding in middle leadership Leading change for improvement Leading in a diverse system
Each module has 50 hours of work: face-to-face; online, applied tasks, collaborative learning groups. Participants undertake a longer school-based leadership project. All work is at M-level.

How much does the programme cost?

We are offering NPQML at £1,050 to FOBISIA schools. In addition those who apply from schools outside of England will also need to pay £225 for their final assessment.
