

School Improvement School Inspection School Accreditation

...it's all about the evidence...

Bangkok Patana School
Bangkok, Thailand
Friday 7th November 2014
Registration 08:30 Session 09:00 – 16:00
Venue: Conference Centre

Whether you are preparing for an external accreditation/inspection event, or pursuing an improvement agenda in your class, key stage, department or school, you will do best if you work with the evidence... but how best to collect it? How best to collate? Analyse it? What if it doesn't give you a full enough story?

Mark Evans was at one time was the youngest OfSTED inspector in the UK: he's bit older now, and is Chief Inspector for Penta International, and very experienced in FOBISIA, BSO and other international schools.

He works as a School Improvement Partner, an Inspector, an Accrerator and runs performance management and appraisal processes in schools and universities.

He will share what he knows about what constitutes data and how to use it. It will be an active day, with case studies and practical tasks: if you feel lazy, don't book a place!

At the end of the day, you will be clearer about what kind of evidence can and should be used in each process, how to collect and collate it, how best to analyse and present it, and how to plan based on it.

Cost: Baht 500
