

ASSOCIATE LEVEL TRAINING COURSE & SUBSEQUENT PRACTICUM

Dyslexia Thailand is sponsoring an Orton-Gillingham Academy Accredited Associate Level training course in June 2015. This 63 hour course is required to become an Associate member of the Orton-Gillingham Academy. The Academy is the only organization established and authorized expressly to set and maintain professional and ethical standards for the practice of the Orton-Gillingham Approach.

The course will be taught by two fellows of the Academy of Orton-Gillingham Practitioners and Educators (AOGPE), Dawn Nieman and MaryAnn Chatfield. This course is an exclusive opportunity to work with AOGPE Fellows within Asia.

The Associate Level Course includes the following topics:

- Dyslexia and reading disorders
- The rationale of the Orton-Gillingham Approach
- Phonology and morphology
- The motor component and the writing process
- Vocabulary, reading comprehension, and fluency
- 63 hour course

Practicum Includes: (After completion of the above course – additional cost)

- Practical strategies for applying the OG approach
- 10 hours

DATES : 14th – 24th June 2015 (14th-19th, 22-24th June)

LOCATION : Bangkok

COST : $1,500 (USD)

REQUIREMENT : Bachelor's degree or higher (in any area of study)

Associate Level members may tutor individuals using the Orton-Gillingham approach while continuing to work supervised by a Fellow.

Please Contact: info@dyslexiainthailand.com for additional information.

MaryAnn Chatfield
Fellow/AOGPE

Diane Nieman
Fellow/AOGPE